

The 1920's

The Roaring 20's brought economic prosperity to America. Automobiles became more affordable thanks to Henry Ford's assembly line. Changing values saw conflicts over Prohibition, Science and Religion, and fear of communism surfacing after the Russian Revolution of 1917. Women became more independent and the Harlem Renaissance showcased the talents of the African American community.

What led to the issues in the above cartoon? How was it solved?

6A 1. Analyze the causes and effects of the following events and social issues of the 1920's.

	Causes	Effects
Immigration
Nativism
Red Scare
Social Darwinism
Eugenics
Race Relations
Prohibition
Changing Role of Women

6B 1. What impact did the following individuals have on society during the 1920s?

	Who were they?	What impact did they have on society?
Clarence Darrow
William Jennings Bryan
Henry Ford
Glenn Curtiss
Marcus Garvey
Charles A. Lindbergh

13A 2. What was the Great Migration?

3. What caused the Great Migration?

4. What effect did the Great Migration have?

16A 1. How did each of the following cause economic growth and prosperity in the 1920s?

Warren Harding's Return to Normalcy
Reduced taxes
Increased production efficiencies

27C 2. How did assembly line manufacturing affect the workplace?

25B 3. What was the Harlem Renaissance?

4. What was positive and negative about the Harlem Renaissance?

Positives	Negatives

15C 1. How did the National Origin Act of 1924 affect economics in the United States?

23B 2. How did the American Indian Citizenship Act of 1924 affect political rights?

21B 3. Why were the following amendments added to the Constitution?

18th amendment -

19th amendment -

21st amendment -

26C 4. How did African Americans shape American culture during the 1920s?