

Vietnam and the 1960s

The policy of containment and the domino theory would engage the United States in the Vietnam conflict. This war fought with widespread exposure through television would divide the United States. An anti war movement would emerge and engulf the 1960s in a period of protest and change.

8D 1. What is the domino theory? And how did it impact U.S. foreign policy?

8D 2. Explain U.S. involvement in the Vietnam War.

Reasons for US Involvement in Vietnam	Outcomes of US Involvement in Vietnam

8E 3. Identify the following major issues and events of the Vietnam War

Tet Offensive
Escalation of forces
Vietnamization
Fall of Saigon

8F 1. Describe the following responses to the Vietnam War.

Draft
26th Amendment
Role of the media
Credibility gap
Silent majority
Anti-war movement

17D 2. Identify the following actions of government to create economic opportunities for citizens and explain the unintended consequences of each:

	Description	Unintended Consequences
Great Society
Affirmative action
Title IX (9)

20A 1. How did the following impact the relationship between the legislative and executive branches of government?

	Define the event	How did this impact the relationship between the executive and legislative branches? Hint: Who had more power? Explain....
Gulf of Tonkin Resolution
War Powers Act

26F 2. Why did Roy Benavidez win the Congressional Medal of Honor?

26A 3. How did the events of the Vietnam War help to extend political rights for young people?

23A 4. How did Americans participate in the democratic process (besides voting) during this time?

21A 1. How did the Supreme Court rule in Tinker v Des Moines and what were the effects of this case?

19B 2. What was significant about the Miranda v Arizona case?

Identify the following as they relate to the Vietnam War:

3. Geneva Peace Agreement

4. Dien Bien Phu

5. Napalm